Interview with the school principal

🎤 Hi! My name is Zeynep.

📅 I'm from Class 11/C.

📅 Today, we are going to have an interview with our dear school principal Kevser BAŞARAN!

⭐ First of all, thank you for accepting the interview.

I'll start right away – thank you so much for taking your time.

👤 Zeynep: How are you, Miss Kevser?

👤 Madam: Fine. And you?

👤 Zeynep: I'm fine, thank you! 😊

? Question 1: Can you tell us a little about yourself?

👤 Madam:

First of all, I'm really proud of this great work. 🙏

I graduated from the Arabic Language and Literature department and then completed my master's in Educational Institutions and Management. 🎓

I'm currently pursuing a second master's in Arabic Language.

I have worked as a teacher, administrator, tourist guide, and translator in various educational institutions.

Now, I'm happy to be with these wonderful students at this beautiful school! 🏫⭐

I love drinking coffee ☕, walking in nature 🌿, and strolling by the sea 🌊.

I admire horses 🐎 – I'm fascinated by their free spirit.

I love developing myself in every aspect of life. ⭐💪

? Question 2: How many years have you been doing this job?

👤 Madam:

I have 10 years of experience in education. 📖🎓

? Question 3: Why did you choose this job?

 Madam:

I chose to be a teacher because I've always been captivated by the process of learning and discovery. 🌱💡

I truly enjoy connecting with students, understanding their unique perspectives, and helping them find their own "aha!" moments. ⭐

For me, teaching isn't just a job – it's a dynamic profession where I can continuously learn alongside my students. ❤️

And contribute to shaping the next generation

Question -4 What do you think about our magazine ?

Madam: this magazine has turned out excellently it showcases original content and is evidently a delightful undertaking I constantly support our students in this kind of creative projects.

Question-5 what are your expectations from our students?

Madam: from our students I truly expect them to go as far as their curiosity. I want them to be in Egypt to explore new ideas and approach learning with an open mind. Let's always remember the words and that there is not much to expect that's for which it strikes.

Question-6 what advice do you have for the students?

Madam: my advice to all our students is to be brave, be kind and be relentless in your pursuit of knowledge. Most importantly, understand that failures are not endpoints; they are stepping stones. Every mistake is an opportunity to learn, adjust, and grow stronger. Don't be afraid to try new things even if they seem daunting and don't think of fortune so stay curious, stay adaptable, and never stop learning.

Zeynep: this was all, thank you for your time:)

Madam: I really enjoyed our chat, dear Zainab. You made it a very engaging discussion with your thoughtful questions. Thank you for coming and wishing you continuous progress in such wonderful endeavors.

The Independence March

Fear not! For the crimson flag that proudly ripples in this glorious twilight, shall never fade, Before the last fiery hearth that atalayer when my nation is extinguished, For that is " of the statre mynon, yet il evver shine
It is mine; and solely belongs to my valiant mation.

Frown not. I beseech you, oh thou coy crescent,
Smile upon my heroie race?! Why the anger, why, rage?
Our blood which we shed for not-might not be worthy revage!
For freedom is the absolute right fony God wors slaming nation.

I have been here since the beginning and forever shall be so.
What madman shall put me in chains! I dety the very idea!!
I m like the roaring flood, trampling and overflowing my dykke (weir).
I'll cearr part the mountains, fill up the open seas I am welll we strong.

I havebeen been since tbe the Western's and they armoured with walls of steel.
I hat I have borders guarded by the might cetst of a believer.
Recognize your chest as armor and your body as trench! Sto his flery faith ever be killed. Tly-hat battered, single-fanged monster you call
"civilization. ? Perhaps tomorrow? Pehapt even sooner:

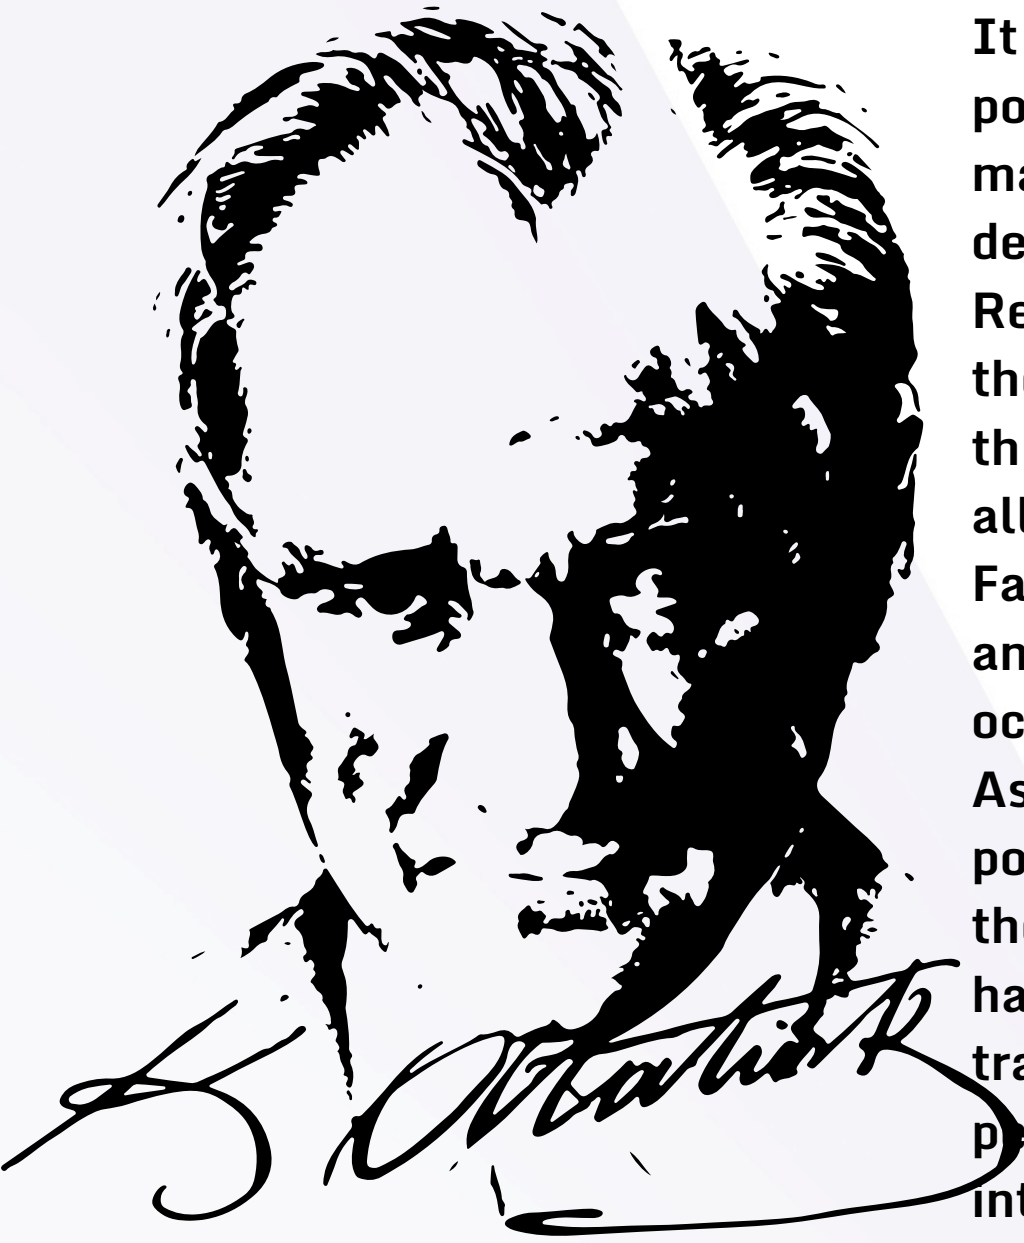

View that see or pan trom homelandto hands of villainous men!
Render your chest as armor and yer body as trench! Stop this bg raceuse!
For soon shall come the joyous days of dine promise..
Who knows? Perhaps tomorrow? Perhaps even sooner!

For oftheu! Leave not my homeland to the hands of villainoumen !
Bender your chast as armer ored your-body as trench! Stop this disgraceful rush!
For soon shall come the joyous days of divine promise... Who knows?
Perhaps fot list the bright dawning sky; oh thou glorious crescent.

Declaration to the
Turkish Youth

TURKISH YOUTH!

That is the only basis of your existence and your future. This basis contains your most precious treasure. In the future, too, there will be ill-will, both in the country itself and abroad, which will try to tear this treasure from you. If one day you are compelled to defend your independence and the Republic, then, in order to fulfill your duty, you will have to look beyond the possibilities and conditions in which you might find yourself. It may be that these conditions and possibilities are altogether unfavorable. It may be that the enemies who desire to destroy your independence and your Republic represent the strongest force that the earth has ever seen; that they have through craft and force, taken possession of all the fortresses and arsenals of the Fatherland; that all its armies are scattered and the country actually and completely occupied.

Assuming, in order to look still darker possibilities in the face, that those who hold the power of Government within the country have fallen into error, that they are fools or traitors, yes, even that these leading persons may identify their personal interests with the enemy's political goals, it might happen that the nation came into complete privation, into the most extreme distress; that it found itself in a condition of ruin and complete exhaustion.

Even under those circumstances, O Turkish child of future generations! It is your duty to save the independence, the Turkish Republic.

The strength that you will need for this is mighty in the noble blood which flows in your veins.

M. K. Atatürk

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE

BIOGRAPHY

William Shakespeare was born in April 1564 in Stratford-upon-Avon, England. Regarded as the greatest playwright in the English language, he wrote plays that capture the full range of human emotions and conflict. Shakespeare composed more than thirty plays, including Hamlet, Romeo and Juliet, Macbeth. He died on April 23, 1616.

Hamlet

Macbeth

Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?

Thou art more lovely and more temperate:

Rough winds do shake the darling
buds of May,

And summer's lease hath all too
short a date:

Sometime too hot the eye of heaven
shines,

And often is his gold complexion dimm'd;

And every fair from fair sometime declines,

By chance or nature's changing course untrimm'd,

But thy eternal summer shall not fade

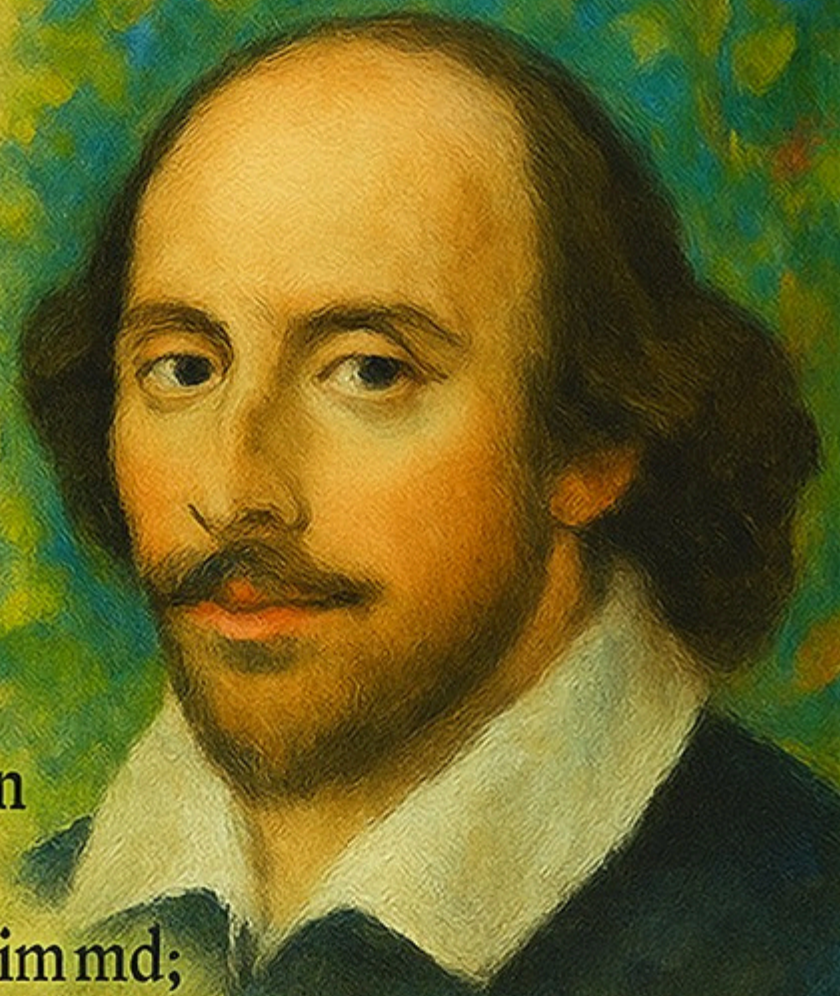

Nor lose possession of that fair thou owest;

Nor shall Death brag thou wander'st in his shade

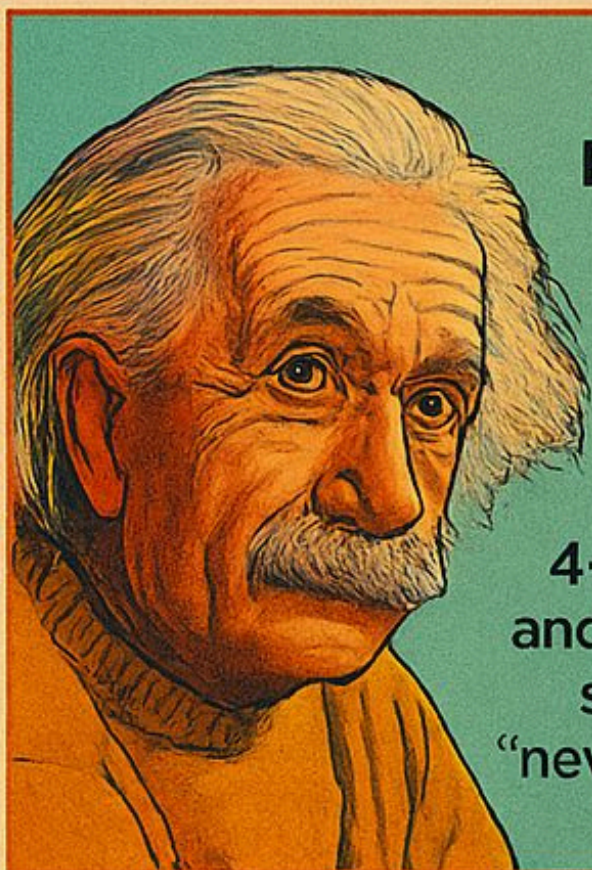

When in eternal lines to time thou growest:

So long as men can breathe or eyes can see,

So long lives this, and this gives life to thee.
